WEEK OF FESTIVITY ON MAUI.

How the Fourth Was Celebrated at Hana

JAPANESE EVENING AT MAKAWAO.

Large Gathering at the Eldredge-Forsyth Wedding—Luau to Mr. Colville.
Jury Reports on Corn Mill Fire—Innocent Schooner Causes Excitement.

MAUI, July 13.—During the 12th inst. Manager J. W. Colville of Paia gave a grand luau in honor of his brother, W. B. Colville of Calcutta.
It was not only intended as a social compliment but also that the gentleman might witness one of the most interesting customs of Hawaii nei.
A large canvas lanai profusely decorated with ferns, bunting and Japanese lanterns was the scene of the festivity, and the fact that Sheriff L.
A. Andrews had general charge of the feast was a guarantee that the viands were most delicious. The occasion was thoroughly enjoyed by a very large gathering of Makawao, Kahului and Wailuku people. The festivities continued from 4 to 9 p. m.

During the evening of the 8th inst.
the Young Ladies' Club of Makawao gave a Japanese evening at the residence of Dr. P. J. Aiken of Paia. The Oriental decorations of the parlors and verandas were most pleasing and effective, the portiere between the drawing rooms—a artistic arrangement of pink draperies—being especially admired. An excellent string band stationed under a huge Japanese umbrella discoursed sweet music for dancing.

At Hana during the Fourth there were three shooting matches. The first with Winchester rifles of 44-calibre, 200 yards, five rounds. The scores were as follows: P. McLane made 18 and took the first prize, a silver cup presented by Hana plantation. N. Omsted was awarded the second prize, score 17, and Dr. Mc-Gettigan the third prize, with a score of 15. In the pistol match, at 50 yards, P. McLane won the first prize, N. Omsted, second, and H.
Covinden the third.

In the third match, any rifle, ten rounds, at 200 yards, N. Omsted scored 41, C. Tarsh 39, and Miss Annie Reuter shooting a 22-calibre gun made 38. A heavy morning rain delayed the celebration, but the sun shone brightly at 9 a. m. and the large program of events with exception of some of the horse races was carried out. After the shooting a large number of people sat down to a fine luau at the court house. After the enjoyment of the various viands, patriotic speeches were made by Deputy Sheriff Josepa, Judge Kaleo and Judge Pakaha of Kipahulu.

At 3 p. m. the field sports began, the most amusing event of the schedule being the many attempts to climb a greased pole extending horizontally thirty feet over the water. A little native boy from Nahiku was finally successful and obtained the little pig which had been squealing vociferously in a bag suspended from the end of the pole.

The horse racing took place on the stretch of the Government road between the plantation and the post office. The dance for some reason was postponed for two weeks.

The Reciprocity mill at Hamoa is still grinding.

Mr. and Mrs. Bolte of Honolulu are the guests of Manager Gjerdum of Hana plantation.

On the 11th inst., between two and three hundred people witnessed the Eldredge-Forsyth wedding at Wai-akoa, Kula, Rev. S. Kapu performing the ceremony. Dancing was kept up till the morning dawned.

During the 10th inst. a schooner was noticed heading for Keonoio and what gave rise to the suspicion that she had dope aboard was the fact that a dense cloud of smoke arose from her deck and still she seemed to be in no distress. However, in spite of the sensation created in police circles, she proved to be a vessel of honorable character simply becalmed.

During the 5th inst. a jury holding an inquest concerning the burning of the Makawao corn mill declared the cause of the fire unknown. There was an insurance of $2000 on the property.

On the 7th, Deputy Sheriff C. W.
Dickey stopped a fau tau game at Keokea, Kula. Seven players were captured and afterwards fined by the Makawao Court.

The grass on the top of Haleakala is knee deep, subsequently all the cattle are fat.

Misses Martha Beckwith and Kate Fleming have returned to their Mak-awao homes.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ogg are soon to take up a permanent residence at Makawao, Maui.

On the Fourth the natives of Hana made a remarkably large haul of fish in time for the celebration.

During the week of festivities to the marriage of Miss Maude Baldwin to Joseph Platt Cooke of Oakland have been sent out. The ceremony will take place at Haiku on the evening of the 18th inst.

Misses Malone, Turner and Knapp are enjoying cool climate at the cottage of W. F. Fogue far up on the Haleakala slope.

On the 5th inst. the Junior Christian Endeavor Society gave their first social in the parlors of the Paia church. It was a thoroughly interesting and enjoyable affair and the children deserve many compliments for their fine entertainment.

Weather: Warm and pleasant.

Outing on Saturday.

A party of prominent people of the city, numbering about fifty, spent Saturday at Aea. The yachts Bonnie Dundee and Hawaii, in charge of President Dole and L. A.
Thurston respectively, conveyed a number of guests to the place mentioned, the remainder going on a special car furnished by Manager B. F. Dillingham. A sumptuous feast was served after all the party had arrived. Yachts and train returned in the afternoon, bringing back a tired but happy crowd. The Hawaii docked at 7:30 last night.

RECORDS MADE AT THE BUTTS

Sharpshooters Again Defeat the Crack Volunteer Company.

Captain Kidwell's Men Beat All Previous Scores—Burnette Makes Highest Individual Score.

The Sharpshooters have again demonstrated their ability to not only defeat any other team, but made a new record in Saturday's contest with Company D. As the appended scores will show, the Sharpshooters are credited with 430 points for ten men—the best record yet made in the islands.
Up to Saturday's shoot Company E held the record with 422. The volunteers made a better score by four points Saturday than in their previous match with Captain Kidwell's men. They, however, have a record of 410, made in the competitive shoot for the prize rifle.
J. F. Clay, who generally makes more than a fair average, fell several points behind his usual mark in Saturday's contest.

The highest individual score (46) was made by Burnette for the volunteers. McLean made the same number of points, but had one three, while Burnette had only four and five, making, according to Creedmore rules, the highest record.
Following were the scores made:

Members of Company E are anxious for a contest with the Sharpshooters, and a match will likely be arranged shortly.

Barge Race Settled.

The ten-oared barge race dispute has come to an end at last. Saturday afternoon Dave Crozier's crew of boat boys were at the scratch and at the signal, no other boat being present to participate, started at an easy stroke to pull over the regular course, which they accomplished in 33:10. The prize of $30 offered for the Fourth of July race was handed over to them. The boat boys are willing now to pull any crew, Captain Parker's not excepted, in a barge of fourteen oars.

It is a curious fact that the man who thinks "that advertising doesn't pay," is the one who is most ready to talk about a libel suit if a paper publishes something he doesn't like.

REPORT ON THE SALOON BILL.

House Judiciary Committee Recommends Extension of Licenses.

NOT REVIEWABLE BY LEGISLATURE

Liquor Dealers Suffered Loss Through Closing—Must Take Same Chances as Merchants in Other Lines—Hilo Electric Light Bill Passes Third Reading.

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY, JULY 13TH.

After prayer by the Chaplain and reading of minutes, the Judiciary Committee through Rep. Kaeo presented the following report on the petition of saloon keepers for rebate of license:

"Your Judiciary Committee to whom was referred the petition of certain vendors of spirituous liquors of Honolulu praying for compensation for losses sustained during the time of martial law which existed from January 7th to March 18th, 1895, beg leave to report as follows:

"Your committee finds that on January 7th the several saloons in this city were closed by order of the Marshal for an indefinite time and forbidden from selling liquor.

"That on January 30th the saloons were permitted to open with certain restrictions as to hours, and to the kind of liquor to be sold, etc., and also by paying a special police guard.

"That on March 18th all restrictions were removed.

"That during the period from January 7th to March 18th the saloons were at considerable expense for license fees, rent, wages and ice, besides the loss of business.
